WE'LL FIGHT HOMES PLAN ALL THE WAY

HUNDREDS of residents vented their anger at plans for a major new housing development on farmland near Old Harlow during a fiery public meeting.

More than 300 people packed out St John's Arts & Recreation Centre to voice unanimous opposition to the proposals, which could see up to 1,200 homes, new shops and even a primary school built on wheatfields bordering Gilden Way, historic Harlowbury Chapel and the Gibberd Garden in Marsh Lane.

The 49-hectare site is owned by a consortium formed by property developers Barratt, Taylor Wimpey and Persimmon. The development team hoping to submit a planning application to Harlow Council early next year.

Friday's two-hour meeting, chaired by former Harlow MP and current Harlow Civic Society chairman Stan Newens, saw members of the public rally together against the plans and agree to set up a steering committee to co-ordinate opposition.

Speaking to the Star after the meeting,

Mr Newens said he had been hugely encouraged by the turnout. "The fact that so many residents have given up part of their evening to attend this meeting shows just how strong the public opposition to these plans is," he said.

"By setting up a steering committee to oversee efforts to fight these plans we can ensure our response is strong, co-ordinated and unified, giving us a much better chance of success."

The proposals are featured in Harlow Council's recently-launched consultation

Residents unite to fight off housing development

on the Local Development Framework – the town's long-term planning blueprint – and Mr Newens urged residents to take part.

"It's incredibly important that as many residents as possible register their concerns with these plans by participating in the council's LDF consultation," he said.

Issues raised during the meeting included concerns over inadequate drainage, increased traffic, visibility and the potential extra strain any large-scale development would place on local services including schools, GP surgeries and hospitals.

Local archaeologist Mike Jury described the 49-hectare site as "one of the most important prehistoric sites in the country" and warned that significant finds could be lost forever if the land was developed, while Gibberd Garden trustee Ken Collins said the development would destroy a haven of peace and tranquillity.

Sheering Road resident Colleen Morrison told the meeting she had collected more than 2,400 signatures on a petition against the proposals, before nine-year-old Samuel Redgewell spoke on behalf of local youngsters, calling for the site to be safeguarded so future generations could enjoy it for recreational use.

But Robin McCartney, chairman of the Churchgate Street Residents' Association, warned that the fight to save the land would need to be backed by a "considerable amount of money" and set up collection buckets at the exit to get the fund started – a move fully endorsed by Mr Newens.

"Make no mistake, this will be a long battle and we will need as much money as possible to continue the fight," he said.

"We will need to pay for the hire of venues to hold further public meetings, the printing of posters, leaflets and flyers and possibly even legal representation if it gets to that stage.

"I would urge anyone who supports our cause to give as much money as they can afford, no matter how small the amount."

Head transforms school placed in special measures

By DAN PHILLIPS

daniel.phillips@hertsexnews.co.uk

THE headteacher of a school which has raised standards to such an extent that it is no longer rated 'unsatisfactory' by education inspectors has praised the hard work of her staff and pupils.

An Ofsted report published on Friday said Spinney Junior School now provided an acceptable standard of education and in some areas was even classed as outstanding.

The assessment comes little more than a year after the school was put in special measures and rated unsatisfactory in almost every aspect.

The latest inspection report recognises the school's rapid turnaround just 21 weeks after the appointment of an interim headteacher and deputy.

This week head Lella Yates said: "Some parents have commented that they didn't need Ofsted to tell them what had happened at the school because they have noticed the difference themselves.

"But we are very proud and relieved that our hard work has been recognised and rewarded. There was talk that this was one of the quickest turnarounds around.

"The hard work comes from everyone from the caretaker to myself, the staff, the children and the whole community. Every-body has contributed to this success."

The report said new leadership had raised expectations and standards, improved pupil progress, eliminated inadequate teaching and improved behaviour and attendance.

THUMBS UP: Headteacher Lella Yates and some of her pupils celebrate the findings of Ofsted inspectors (photo: HAR0696215)

"There was clear evidence that pupils were responding positively and making rapid progress as a direct result of the improvements in teaching and learning," said the inspectors, who visited the school earlier this month.

"It is difficult to say what more could have been achieved by the current senior staff in so short a timeframe. The capacity to improve is outstanding."

Connections with the community have been boosted with the forming of a new parent-teacher association called Friends of Spinney School.

And the board of governors has agreed to merge with that of neighbouring Spinney Infants from January, ahead of a proposed amalgamation of the two schools next year.

Mrs Yates' role is to be parachuted into failing schools and turn them around but she will stay on to provide more stability to Spinney Junior.

"I should be going somewhere else but my heart has become attached to the school and I shall stay until the amalgamation," she said.

"It would be unfair on the pupils to have so many different headteachers over such a short period."

Council to overhaul leisure discounts

A UNIVERSAL card system which enables all Harlow residents to get discounts on leisure activities in the town is set to be scrapped.

Councillors will discuss ditching the Leisure Card scheme tonight (Thursday) in favour of a new system that targets only students and those on benefits.

The current system categorises users into three different groups, one of which is available to any resident.

Under the new proposals those entitled to the new card will be people claiming housing or council tax benefit, those on income support, Job Seekers' or Employment Support allowances, the disabled and those with special needs, and full-time students.

Residents aged over 60 and on low incomes will also continue to receive a discount.

Joel Charles, chairman of Harlow Council's community and citizenship policy working group, said: "We think this proposed reorganisation is a sensible one that targets discounts at those residents who need them most.

"Like many authorities, we no longer directly run many of our facilities so the old Leisure Card system was in need of updating.

"Those who need help most will not lose out."

Tenants must be consulted on issues of social housing

PRIZE LETTER OF THE WEEK

The Star has teamed up with Sheaffer, the prestige pen maker, to offer our correspondents the chance to win a stylish Sheaffer 300 worth almost £30. The writer of the Letter of the Week, as chosen by the editor, will win this quality Sheaffer roller ball pen. For further information go to www.sheaffer.com.

SIR, The issues raised by the recent resignation of two local councillors appear to have been forgotten in the rush for political point-scoring.

The fundamental right to be housed by your local council has been, and still is, an important feature of any developing town but the criteria used by the council to assess an applicant's right to be housed has not been properly evaluated. Therefore, instead of using political dogma local politicians should be addressing these important questions.

On what basis can a housing applicant gain council housing? Is it right that an applicant can gain council housing despite already being adequately housed? Is the current CBL system open to abuse and if it is, can those abuses be eradicated?

Unfortunately due to the changes in the decision-making structures within the council these questions will not be properly addressed. In my 21 years of resident/tenant involvement the council has only properly consulted the tenants of Harlow once and that was only because they were legally obliged to do so.

These important questions need proper consultation with proper tenant involvement, not just paper-chasing exercises that get ignored.

If we then add the current Government's social housing proposals for tenants to have a fixed two-year tenancy structure then I fear for the development of social housing in this town.

POST: Star Letters, 6 West Gate, Harlow, Essex CM20 1JW EMAIL: star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

Cut the dinner, not services

SIR, In response to Councillor Tony Hall's letter in which he writes about pride in our town (Star, November 11) it is clear to see why the Tories ignore public opinion. They just simply plunge ahead wasting thousands of Harlow residents' money on civic dinners.

They also have no shame in wasting residents' money on a survey on how the council's committee structure runs and then ignore the result of the public consultation.

Cllr Hall, just like the rest of his group, completely miss the point the Labour group were making on the civic dinner. Yes, in previous years Conservative, Labour and Liberal Democrat chairmen have held civic dinners which we supported but in the past couple of years the Tory administration has made cut after cut to frontline services that have hit some of the most vulnerable people in this town. That is why a civic dinner is no longer appropriate.

Just to prove that this is not a "petty political boycott", it is a fact that during last year's budget debate the Labour group were the only political group that moved an amendment to remove the chairman's budget, even though at the time there was a Labour chair.

It is simply not right to cut services to residents while spending thousands on wine, three-course meals and chauffeurs.

If the Tories want to show off our great town, then the Town Show is the perfect event to do so. That way all the residents of Harlow can be involved.

But sorry, I forgot the Tories cut that as well.

Mark Wilkinson
Labour group leader
Harlow Council

We must spend more on health

SIR, As a health professional I read with interest the first 'Halfon in the Hotseat' column in which Robert Halfon stated the Government will increase the health budget by £2bn.

We were told the NHS budget was ring-fenced. Wrong. Over the next three years over £1bn of health money will cross over to support social care. Whilst I agree health and social care must be complementary, I feel this decision will only cause conflict and confusion.

What will this pay for? It is expected to pay for "reablement" which means trying to keep people independent for as long as possible, thereby reducing the need to provide health care.

The simple truth is that with any degenerative illness such as dementia there is a need for more health care, not less.

The other idea is "telecare" which is the same principle as telephone banking. If you have a problem you can make a quick call and someone somewhere will give you some advice.

The final idea is to cut out the social worker, occupational therapist or nurse and for you to be provided with a range of documents to complete so you can be given a voucher to spend on your own care package. The idea has been around for several years and most agree it doesn't work, doesn't provide choice and is also more expensive than the current system.

Can we honestly see a major take-up of any of these ideas? There are many faults in the current system but to introduce these changes at the same time as a 26 per cent cut in current Harlow services, as well as the hidden cuts to our health service, is breaking down the very principles of care in our community.

These are the real challenges and dangers of the spending review which will have a direct impact on our local health services both in the hospital and the community.

These changes will reduce the amount of community nurses and we can expect to lose up to 20 per cent of beds at Princess Alexandra Hospital. So let's not pretend health is safe under this Government as it is not.

Tony Durcan
Rundells, Harlow

Petition for a referendum

SIR, A couple of weeks ago you published a letter from me pointing out that the Government's proposed Parliamentary Reform Bill states any petition of 100,000 signatures will be eligible for a formal debate in the House of Commons.

Unfortunately, in order to fit in the space available, the letter had to be edited and the final version omitted one very important detail which is how to obtain petition forms.

These forms can be downloaded from www.haveyoursay.eu or obtained by calling 0800 157 7916.

Can I encourage Star readers, who in years to come will find themselves paying an increasingly heavy price for the dubious privilege of being governed by the EU, to have their say on what is the most significant political decision of our lifetime?

The issues surrounding the sovereign control of our finances, immigration and laws are vitally important to this land. Hopefully, this petition will secure enough support for a debate and a referendum on whether we stay in the EU.

Please obtain a petition form and ask your family and friends to join you in signing it. There may not be another opportunity for a referendum, so please act now.

'Missing' driving instructor repays dad's cash

THE father who was left out of pocket after his daughter's driving instructor disappeared with his cash has got his money back after his story was reported in the Star.

Thomas Breen, of Milwards, Harlow, paid almost £300 to the instructor from driving school Red for 12 lessons. But his daughter Natasha (17) had only completed half of the sessions before the instructor stopped returning calls.

This week the instructor contacted the Star to say he had sent a cheque for the outstanding amount plus an additional

Dad sees Red over refusal of a refund

FLASHBACK: Star, November 11

£50 as a gesture of goodwill.

The man, who asked not to be named, blamed problems in his personal life for what had happened but was now in the process of reimbursing all his former students.

"I didn't run off with the money," he said. "I had been going through a very stressful time and, while that's no excuse, things just got on top of me."

"I had been going through a split from my wife after 30 years of marriage and I just had to get away for four or five weeks."

"But it was temporary and I'm back now, albeit working for another company. I've been a driving instructor for 27 years, with a good pass rate and nothing like this has happened before."

Mr Breen had criticised Red after they told him they were not liable for the debt as the instructor was self-employed.

Since the story was published the Star has received several offers of help from other driving instructors willing to offer Natasha discounted lessons to make up for the loss.

Mr Breen said he was pleased he was getting his money back but added his complaint was always about the attitude of Red when he contacted them to ask for a refund.

"I'm grateful for the refund and it does restore my faith in driving instructors," he added.

Memory room a trip back in time

A COLLECTION of household items from days gone by has helped bring back memories of happier times for a group of elderly dementia sufferers at a care home in Harlow.

Staff at the Partridge Care Centre, in Partridge Road, have created a room spanning the decades to make life a little easier for their 70 residents.

Activity co-ordinator Debbie Bell, pictured left, said: "A lot of the time people suffering from dementia go back in time in their minds. By having familiar things around them from when they were younger it has given our residents a sense of well-being."

"It has evoked memories of the past and has been a calming influence if they are having a bad day."

Staff have been collecting items for two months and are now planning to create more rooms after it proved to be a huge success.

Debbie said: "When I first started doing this room I never

By SOPHIE WARNER
star@hertsexnews.co.uk

would have believed what a difference it would have to their lives.

"Even some of quieter residents who come into the room start to chatter as soon as they see things from their past. It has been an amazing success."

With limited resources available to stock the room, staff used their initiative to acquire items for the room.

"I spoke to my manager and asked to bring in some old furniture," said Debbie. "After that I got a vision in my head of how I wanted it to be."

"We don't have many funds available so I went begging on the internet for donations to help people in care and people were very generous."

The Partridge Care Centre is now appealing for more old items to put in the next rooms. Anyone with something they are willing to donate should contact Debbie on (01279) 452225 or 07930 0276155.

Tory faithful give Lord Tebbit a standing ovation at dinner

CONSERVATIVE Party hardliner Norman Tebbit returned to Harlow on Friday to celebrate the 40th anniversary of his election as the town's MP.

Lord Tebbit was guest of honour at the annual Churchillian dinner organised by Harlow Conservative Ladies and held at Canons Brook Golf Club.

Some guests had not only been at Lord Tebbit's original selection meeting but also helped him during the 1970 campaign. It ended with his victory in the Epping constituency, which back then included Harlow.

Current MP Robert Halfon, who attended the evening, said: "It was a great honour for Harlow Conservatives to have Lord Tebbit at our dinner. He was central to Conservatism during the 1980s and had his wife not been tragically injured by the IRA, he perhaps would have become leader after Mrs Thatcher."

"He has always been known for his straight-talking and he did not disappoint at the dinner. Whilst he has reservations about the idea of coalition government, he acknowledged the important reforms the Government is making to deal with the economy."

Mr Halfon said the guests gave Lord Tebbit a standing ovation.

The presentation of two awards took place during the evening. The Alan Pond Cup for long service to the party was given to Andrew Shannon while the Vince Dunn Cup for campaigning went to Harlow councillor Guy Mitchinson.

Playhouse Reg the best Santa

By DAN PHILLIPS

daniel.phillips@hertsessexnews.co.uk

THEY say you can wait ages for a bus to come along and then two arrive at once.

Carolynne Margetts called the Star this week after seeing a familiar face in a photograph we printed a couple of weeks ago.

Carolynne, of Bynghams, Harlow, has been scanning the pages of Nostalgia since it started in the hope of seeing a picture of former Playhouse manager Reg Miller.

Her efforts were finally rewarded when we took a look back at the theatre's former Petticoat Restaurant and printed a photograph of staff at the venue. For there in the front row was Reg. Born and brought up in Margate, Reg came to the town in anticipation of the theatre's opening in 1971. He lived in The Hornbeams before moving to Northbrooks and then later to Hamstel Road.

"He not only worked for the Playhouse until his retirement but he also helped out there after he retired," said Carolynne. "He would be there in a suit, white shirt and bow tie, whether he was working on the door, showing the films or just keeping things ticking over."

"Everybody knew him then, but sadly no one I've spoken to at the theatre now remembers him."

REG MILLER

Reg also filled the role of Father Christmas at the Harvey Centre and was so popular that a well-known London department store even tried to nab him for their festive celebrations.

"He was the best Father Christmas," said Carolynne. "With his theatre involvement he really knew how to pull it off. He had a bell that he rang and used rouge for his red cheeks and wore the narrow glasses.

"I took my two sons, Matthew and Aaron, to see him. He had to make sure they didn't know it was him!"

"Either Harrods or Selfridges got wind of what a good Santa he was and asked him. I've got a feeling he turned it down or just did it for one year because he wanted to do the Harvey Centre."

Carolynne believes Reg died in the mid-1990s. "He was the loveliest, most good person," she said. "He was a close family friend and was a very good friend to my mother. She met him just after the Playhouse opened."

"I even wanted him to give me away when I got married because there was a complication within my family. It was so nice to see his picture in the Star."

NOSTALGIA UPDATE: Harlow Playscheme

IN recent weeks we have looked back at the playscheme, which provided so much entertainment for youngsters in Harlow.

Maggie Felstead and Molly Pampling were among the women who ran the scheme during the 1950s and into the 1960s.

Long Ley resident Marjorie Last has now been in touch to tell us more about this YMCA project.

"The first meeting was at a field in First Avenue which is now Burnt Mill School," she said. "I think that in the '50s the Harlow Development Corporation let us use The Dashes playing field and common room."

"Youngsters enjoyed a month of fun and games, with the highlight of a coach out to Grange Farm."

"When Prime Minister Harold McMillan visited the town he called in to chat and when Harlow Council came into being, they took over and extended the scheme in other areas."

25 years ago

TUC's jobs summit

Harlow's Trade Union Council held an emergency summit of union leaders following the announcement that more jobs are to be lost in the town. Up to 60 positions will go at Johnson Matthey Metals Ltd following cuts announced at Cossor Electronics and STC.

Hoaxers warning

Police have warned elderly people to be on their guard following a callous theft from an 88-year-old widow in her own home. It is believed more than one group of hoaxers are preying on older people in Harlow.

Immunisation plea

Fears of a whooping cough outbreak in the town have led to a plea to parents to get their children immunised. Cases of the disease have been reported locally and it has been making a come back nationally.

Aquatube delayed

The grand opening planned for the Aquatube at Harlow Pool has had to be postponed. Subcontractors for the construction firm have been unable complete work because of industrial action in Sweden where the parts are made.

Thugs warned to expect no leniency

TWO thugs who carried out an unprovoked, attack on a teenager in Harlow have been warned by a judge not to expect leniency when they are sentenced.

Both Daniel Ryan (19), of Long Ley, Harlow, and Dean McFarlane (19), of Waterhouse Moor, Harlow, admitted causing grievous bodily harm to the 17-year-old victim, who cannot be identified for legal reasons.

The court was told the teenager suffered a broken jaw and bruising during the attack which took place in Tripton Road on November 7 last year.

The court heard that, as a result of the injuries he sustained he required metal plates in his mouth.

Ryan also admitted assaulting a 15-year-old youth near Asda in The Water Gardens on the same day.

Robin Du Preez, prosecuting, said: "These were unprovoked, drunken, random attacks on younger youths during which the older victim suffered a broken jaw."

The defendants must now wait until December 10 to hear their fate after Judge Sarah Straite adjourned sentencing at Chelmsford Crown Court on Thursday for reports.

But she warned the pair: "I don't want you to have any ideas of any particular leniency. This was a very nasty and vicious assault."

The pair were released on bail with the condition they report to Harlow Police between 6-9pm each Monday and Thursday until they are sentenced.

Fire service to crack down on 'false' alarms

FIRE crews in Essex will no longer respond immediately to certain automatic fire alarm calls in offices or factories or from telephone kiosks where the caller dials 999 and then hangs up.

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

At present more than nine out of 10 callouts to automatic alarms turn out to be false and so service chiefs have taken the decision in order that operational resources are used more effectively.

An analysis of incidents attended by Essex County Fire and Rescue Service crews over a 15-month period from April 2009 to June 2010 showed automatic alarms accounted for 28 per cent and, of those, 97 per cent were false alarms.

Chief Fire Officer David Johnson said domestic taxpayers should not bear the burden of industrial or commercial premises failing to maintain their AFAs.

"I am sure that homeowners and businesses would rather our fire crews and appliances are ready to respond to their real emergencies rather than them not being available because they are sitting outside factories or offices dealing with yet another of the thousands of false alarms that the service gets on a yearly basis," he said.

Under new procedures, firefighters will not respond to AFAs unless a follow-up call is received to a confirmed fire. However the service will still mobilise to alarm calls in schools, hospitals and residential homes.

The changes are due to be introduced in February next year.

Adrian Clarke, Fire Brigades Union secretary for East Anglia, said he was concerned that premises protected by automatic fire alarms will see either no attendance by the fire service or a severely delayed and reduced response which could result in fires being able to grow and increase the risk to life and injury.

"This would also increase the cost of fire losses, increasing insurance premiums and can leave businesses unable to recover," he said.

By-election date

A BY-ELECTION will be held in Sawbridgeworth to fill the East Herts District Council seat left vacant by independent Nigel Clark.

Mr Clarke resigned as a councillor in September, along with wife Deborah who served as an independent member for Hunsdon – in protest at what they claimed was a lack of transparency and accountability by the Conservative administration.

If the seat is contested the poll will take place on Thursday, December 23.

Artist's daughter donates two of his oil paintings to hospital

TWO oil paintings by a renowned Essex artist have been donated to St Margaret's Hospital in Epping. John Stevens was cared for at the hospital until his death in 1990 and this week his daughter, Bridget Stevens-Marzo, presented two of his works.

Ms Stevens-Marzo's gift was in memory of both her father and mother, who also spent time at the hospital.

Yesterday (Wednesday), a selection of works from the artist's studio will be sold at Bonington's Auctioneers in Loughton.

Mr Stevens, who lived in Loughton, was largely self-taught but went on to be exhibited at the Royal Academy and the Paris Salon.

Judy Butler, outpatients' manager at St Margaret's Hospital, said: "We are delighted to have received the paintings from Bridget, whose parents had fond memories of their time here.

"It is a lovely thought and very kind gesture. I couldn't thank the family enough for thinking of us.

"The paintings are hanging on the walls and already being enjoyed by others."

Town centre's in thousands

THOUSANDS of people headed for Harlow town centre on Sunday to enjoy a day of fun as the stars of this year's Playhouse pantomime switched on the Christmas lights.

Breathtaking fireworks, funfair rides and a dazzling glo-stick parade made sure this year's Christmas Cracker went off with a real bang, while business was booming for shops, cafes and restaurants which were kept busy during the colourful celebrations.

The crowds were entertained by circus performers, stiltwalkers and surreal sideshows before Aaron Sidwell, Chris Stanton and other members of the cast of Aladdin were joined by Harlow Council vice chairman Mike Garnett switched on the lights from a stage set up in Market Square.

The switch-on was then followed by fireworks including a dramatic pyrotechnic cascade down the front of Market House, while a cannon blasted out a sprinkling of snow.

The event was organised by the Town Centre Partnership and made possible with sponsorship from Harlow Council, Harlow North JV, The Water Gardens, Seen Nightclub/Bar 21, ASDA, Primark, King Du Restaurant, Specsavers, Kier Harlow and Harlow Renaissance Ltd.

Town centre development manager Richard Dennerly told the Star: "It was a truly spectacular event which went very well. Everyone really enjoyed the live entertainment and fireworks.

"I'd like to thank the people of Harlow for turning out in their thousands to make this another special event and also say a big thank-you to all the sponsors and other organisations that helped organise the day."

Beans, bears and dressing up for Pudsey

By DAN PHILLIPS

daniel.phillips@hertsexsexnews.co.uk

SCHOOLS, nurseries and businesses and individuals across Harlow raised thousands of pounds for the BBC's Children in Need appeal on Friday.

Rob Wood, a trading director for bakery chain Greggs, was the toast of his colleagues after plunging into a bath tub full of baked beans wearing just a bikini.

He was cheered on by Pudsey Bear and a crowd who gathered outside the Gregg's shop in East Gate.

Throughout the day customers were asked to guess the number of beans in the bath – with the winner eating free for a week.

Leftover bumper-sized tins were of beans were also sold off, adding to the total of £500 in aid of the charity.

Students and teachers at Stewards School raised £1,320 with more money still coming in. Among the fundraising events events was a fancy dress competition with pupils and staff dressing up as their favourite fictional characters.

Head of year Karen Batterham dressed as the Wicked Witch of the West but it was Year 7's Joseph Thomas and Grace Burns who won the competition with their respective Dalek and Dorothy outfits.

Assistant head Marie Erwood said "The generosity of pupils, parents and staff is always amazing."

Staff at the NatWest, in The Rows, banked £237 for the charity after joining in the fun with a fancy dress day.

Customers were encouraged to guess the weight of a specially made Children in Need cake – with the prize being the cake itself.

Branch business manager Khalid Khan said: "It's been a fun day and the customers have really responded to it."

School raised £240 with a bring-a-teddy-to-school day and some biscuit sales. They also took part in a series of bear-themed workshops and joined youngsters from the infant school for some singing. Headteacher Janet Matthews said: "The children loved it. The work will now be put up on display boards so they can see what the rest of the school has done and how the money was raised."

Meanwhile toddlers at Church Langley Pre-School held a pyjama party, teddy bears picnic and raffle on the day and raised £157.30.

WIN DVD of the hit TV series Police Interceptors

THE fly-on-the-wall television series Police Interceptors, some of which is filmed in Harlow, has proved popular with viewers of Five TV.

Made by Raw Cut TV, it follows a hand-picked team of officers using the most powerful rally cars in the world to deny criminals the use of the roads.

In their Evo Villis and Subaru Imprezas, they are a force to be reckoned with as they clamp down on all types of crime in Essex.

Now, for the first time, Police Interceptors is available to buy on DVD.

And this week we are giving you the chance to win one of 10 copies of this double DVD set which sells for £19.99.

Filmed over six months in Essex, Police Interceptors will have petrolheads drooling over their remote controls. The pace never falters and the action never slackens with the Essex Police ANPR (Automatic Number Plate Recognition) Intercept Team cracking down on road crimes as varied as driving whilst under the influence, driving whilst disqualified, dangerous driving, driving whilst using a mobile phone, failing to stop after an incident and driving without insurance.

The deployment of the Eurocopter

EC135 with its powerful all-seeing camera provides a much-needed 'eye in the sky' for the aerial reconnaissance of vehicle pursuits, speeding incidents and drugs busting. It speeds along at 162 mph.

Natalie Pinkham hosts the Police Interceptors Special Editions which go backstage with the crews and look again at some of the more exciting aspects of policing in Essex.

Police Interceptors is fun, dramatic, hair raising and impossible to miss.

Sign up to line up at St Clare's Santa Run

THE St Clare Hospice Santa Run is now less than three weeks away – so you'll have to get a move on if you want to join in the fun.

The run, which is being supported by the Star, takes place on Sunday, December 12. It follows a 4km route in and around Harlow Town Park and the emphasis is on having a laugh.

All adults taking part will be given a full Santa suit complete with beard and belt to wear while children will receive a Santa hat.

"Well over 100 people have already signed up for the run and their Santa suits and hats are being posted out but there is still time for more people to sign up," said St Clare's events fundraiser Tracy Stratford.

"You don't have to be able to run to take part. Last year people walked, took their dogs around the course and even pushed their little ones in buggies round! As long as you enjoy yourself and get in the festive spirit for the hospice it doesn't matter.

"There are a little less than three weeks to go until the event so you need to sign up fast to get your free suit or hat!

"We are hoping to have 300 Santas take part and raise £15,000. It costs over £5,000 a day to provide our specialist services free of charge to hundreds of local people each year. Please do sign up and come and join the fun."

Registration costs £15 for adults (16 and over) and £5 for children. Children under 15 years old must sign up with an adult.

All you have to do to register to take part is visit the hospice website at www.stclarehospice.org.uk and click on the homepage link or call (01279) 773750. Alternatively, you can apply for a registration form using the coupon on the right. But don't delay – all entries must be received by Thursday, December 9.

COMFORT & JOY

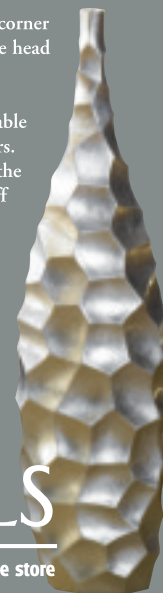

As the long nights draw in and the festive season approaches, thoughts turn to home comforts and family get togethers. Fishpools' Autumn/Winter collections are a feast for the eyes exuding style, comfort and quality in equal measure. Unite cool leathers, rustic woods and metallic fabrics, then bind them with powder soft rugs and multifaceted accessories.

New this season is the ice cool Pescara corner sofa in glove soft leather with adjustable head rests and a myriad of combinations. Table planning is made easy round the gorgeous extending Carpaccio dining table with its uber sleek Dalcian leather chairs. The Mortimer chair shimmers against the charming Diamond chest, and finish off with shiny accessories to give year round glitter.

Autism group to mark a milestone

A GROUP offering support to parents and carers of children with autism is celebrating its fifth birthday today (Thursday).

PACT – Parents of Autistic Children Together – will be marking the occasion by setting up an information stand at the Latton Bush Centre's parent partnership workshops. It will be decorated with balloons and banners while visitors will be offered a slice of birthday cake as part of the celebrations. PACT (Harlow) was started in 2005 by four parents of autistic children who felt isolated because of what they considered a lack of support and guidance in the town.

"When someone suggested that we set up our own group we thought 'we can't do this, we're just parents'," said committee

By DAN PHILLIPS
daniel.phillips@hertsessexnews.co.uk

chairwoman Sam Fancett. "But then we thought, why not?"

Today more than 100 local families have joined.

It is estimated that more than half a million people in the UK are affected by autism, a disabling condition that can have a devastating effect on sufferers and their families.

PACT provides support to parents and carers as well as offering an advice service to health and educational professionals on how to support those affected.

The Harlow group holds monthly support meetings at The Meadows Children's Centre, in Harberts Road. These give carers an opportunity to share their experiences, speak about issues and concerns they have and keep up to date with the services available to them.

They also hold weekly leisure activity sessions for children and their siblings, as well as activities in the school holidays.

Sam said: "On behalf of the PACT (Harlow) committee I would like to thank all the parents who never cease to amaze us with their strength and passion to support children with disabilities in our community and to raise awareness and acceptance. "Most importantly, we aim to see the child before the syndrome."

For more information on the group, its events and services, visit the website at www.pactharlow.org.uk.

Jake on air with weather report

A SCHOOLBOY from Harlow put his broadcasting skills to the test when he won the opportunity to read the weather forecast on a local radio station.

Passmores School pupil Jake Messenger, of Shawbridge, got the opportunity during a behind-the-scenes visit to the Heart Essex studios in Chelmsford.

Jake and 14 other youngsters were invited to visit the breakfast show and were challenged to record themselves reading the weather forecast. The recordings were then put on the Heart website and listeners were asked to vote for their favourite.

Jake garnered the most support by using social networking site Facebook and a school campaign.

As winner, Jake then returned to the studios to read out a weather report live on air. He also joined in a discussion about teeth braces.

Jake, pictured with presenters Martin Day and Su Harrison, also won two tickets to see The Saturdays in concert in Southend next February.

Support for business start-ups

HARLOW MP Robert Halfon dropped in at the opening of a temporary shop offering advice to budding entrepreneurs seeking a leg-up in the business world.

Mr Halfon joined Harlow Council chairman Sue Livings at the opening of The Enterprise Shop in the Harvey Centre which was timed to coincide with Global Entrepreneurship Week.

The shop, which was only open for a few days, was run by a partnership including Business Link and Harlow and District Chamber of Commerce.

Keith Hughes, Business Link partnership director, said: "We know that Harlow is an enterprising town full of people with great business ideas, many of whom don't know how to make the leap from idea to a fully fledged running business.

"To ensure that these new businesses have the best possible chance of long-term survival and growth, it is important that they are encouraged to access the support they need and for it to be provided when and how they want it."

Views sought on pharmacies

WHAT do you think about pharmacy services in Harlow?

West Essex NHS Primary Care Trust has launched a public consultation to ensure there is a range of services available to meet the needs of residents.

The trust has already prepared a draft Pharmaceutical Needs Assessment of local needs based on consultations commissioned so far.

Now a new document, which looks at current and future needs, is available for residents to comment on before the assessment is finalised.

The document and a summary are available on the trust's website at www.westessexpct.nhs.uk. The deadline for submissions is Friday, December 31.

Bargain hunt

AN antiques and collectors fair will be held at Harlow Leisurezone on Sunday.

Bargain hunters can take their pick from thousands of affordable and unusual items ranging from postcards to furniture.

"Harlow has not had a major fair like this in a long time," said Gary Sheridan of organisers GNB Fairs. "It will be a great event for collectors of all ages and the perfect place to buy a really unusual Christmas present."

Doors open at 11am and admission is £3 per person.

Party night

A LIVE band will provide the entertainment at a Harlow counselling and life management centre's fundraising Christmas party next Friday.

The Calm Centre's party at the Latton Bush Centre, in Southern Way, starts at 7.30pm and will also have a licensed bar.

Tickets costs £8. For more information call (01279) 411330.

Jab can help to fight off the flu

WINTER approaches and with it comes the threat of flu.

Influenza is a highly infectious illness that spreads rapidly through the coughs and sneezes of people who are carrying the virus

The symptoms can hit quite suddenly and severely. They usually include fever, chills, headaches and aching muscles, usually accompanied by a cough and sore throat.

Because flu is caused by a virus and not bacteria, antibiotics are ineffective in its treatment. Anyone can get flu but it can be more serious for:

- people aged 65 or over
- people of any age with a serious medical condition (including children over six months old).

If you are in one of these two groups you're more vulnerable to the effects of flu – even if you're fit and healthy – and could develop more serious illnesses such as bronchitis and pneumonia, which could result in hospitalisation.

Flu can also make existing medical condition worse.

GET THE JAB

The best time of the year to get a flu vaccination is in the autumn. It's free and it's effective against the latest flu virus strains.

Even if you've already had a flu jab in previous years, you need another one this year. The flu jab may only protect you for a year because the viruses that cause flu are always changing.

The H1N1 virus that caused the swine flu pandemic last year will still be around this winter, so the 2010-2011 seasonal flu vaccination will include a vaccine to protect against this virus.

See your GP about the flu jab if you are 65 or over or if you have any of the following problems (whatever your age):

- a serious heart or chest complaint, including asthma
- serious kidney disease
- diabetes
- lowered immunity due to disease or treatment such as steroid medication or cancer treatment
- if you have ever had a stroke.

Your GP may also advise you to have a flu jab if you have serious liver disease, multiple sclerosis or some other diseases of the nervous system.

If you think you may need a flu vaccination, check with your GP, practice nurse or your local pharmacist. If a nurse visits you regularly, ask about getting your flu vaccination.

Helping people to care for themselves in community

LAST week was Self Care Week which aimed to get people, especially those with a long-term condition, to take control by learning about how they can better look after their own health. Self care is how you take medicines, treat minor ailments and seek help when you need it, as well as keeping fit and healthy. And if you have a long-term condition, it is about understanding that condition and how to live with it on a day-to-day basis.

People say they want to look after their own health and most of those with a long-term condition tend to be experts in their own care. But some still do not understand their condition or are unsure when and why they take their medicines.

There are currently around 15 million people in England living with a long-term condition and hospitals have found that a significant number of these individuals have deteriorated to such an extent that they have required admission. Ideally, these patients should have access to the right care and support so they are either self managing or, with the aid of a nurse or doctor, can manage and control their symptoms.

In keeping with the theme promoted during Self Care Week 2010 and the regional evidence, NHS West Essex in partnership with The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust has embarked on a project to improve care in the community.

This brings together a number of strands of work to help ensure that people see the right healthcare professional in the right place at the right time.

A proportion of this work is strengthening the care offered by community teams, improving communication and discharges, and enhancing access to appropriate healthcare services.

Information and support is available both nationally and locally. To find out more visit the NHS Choices website at www.nhs.uk/selfcare or contact NHS Direct.

Stay away from A&E unless it's an emergency!

AS NHS hospitals across county gear themselves up for another busy winter, the latest figures show that at least one in every 10 people who go to A&E don't need to be there.

Senior doctors and nurses are appealing to people in West Essex to remember that emergency department and 999 services are for life-threatening and emergency conditions in order to help them to provide fast treatment for people who have had heart attacks, strokes and serious accidents.

The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust, in partnership with NHS West Essex and West Essex Community Services, has collaborated on a local campaign which aims to make people aware of the range of NHS services available on their doorstep to help with minor illnesses and injuries that don't need a visit to the emergency department.

Based on the concept of a traffic light system, information is available that directs patients to alternative services and options for dealing with common complaints such as backache and minor sports injuries, sore throats, coughs, colds, flu and stomach upsets.

Details of local services can be found by calling NHS Direct on 0845 46 47.

Bubble tent is a room with a view

SPENDING a night outside under the stars has been taken to a whole new level by the latest camping craze – blow-up 'bubble' tents.

These ingenious see-through structures have been designed to allow campers to get as close to nature as possible.

But instead of sleeping bags and lanterns, the bubbles are equipped with beds, wardrobes, shelves and electric lights, making them more like portable hotel rooms than normal canvas tents.

Launched earlier this year, the bubble tents are being hired out at camping sites across France for around £400 a night.

The tents have been designed by Pierre Stephane Dumas, who described them as 'unusual huts for unusual nights'.

He told reporters: "Having a night under the stars or seeing the sun rise and set is not something that many people experience, so I designed this eccentric shelter with the aim of offering an unusual experience under the stars while keeping all the comfort of a bedroom."

One design is completely transparent, giving a 360 degree view of the surrounding countryside.

But for campers who want a bit more privacy there is a version with a see-through roof but a surrounding wall which prevents people on the outside from peering in.

ST NICHOLAS: Budding young footballers at the Hobbs Cross Road showed off their skills when a coach from Premier League club West Ham put them through their paces at the Hobbs Cross Road school.

More than 70 pupils from Years 1, 2 and 3 took part in the soccer skills workshop run by coach Jim Hampshire.

He was so impressed with the efforts of several of the youngsters that he recommended they join a junior league.

School spokeswoman Mrs Newland said: "The children were delighted that a West Ham coach came to the school to teach them football skills.

"They all thoroughly enjoyed the session and picked up some brilliant new tricks!"

TANY'S DELL NURSERY: Fashionable toddlers at the Mowbray Road pre-school got the chance to strut their stuff on the catwalk and show off their handmade clothes.

The children put their creative skills to the test by designing their own clothes as part of a fashion workshop.

They then got the chance to show their painted T-shirts and handmade hats complete with the all-important rock star glasses to an audience of proud parents.

Sarah Smith, a teacher at the nursery, said: "The kids really enjoyed the fashion show and had loads of fun showing off their creations to their parents."

ST JAMES: The Paringdon Road primary school is celebrating a double sporting success.

The school has been voted School of the Year 2010 in the Harlow Council Sports Awards and recently scooped the Essex Schools Sports Award in recognition of getting through to eight county finals last year.

It was presented with a trophy, a framed certificate and a cheque for £250 at a reception held at The Rayleigh Mill and Arts Centre.

Assistant headteacher Lois Pannell, who is responsible for schools sports, said: "The children were really delighted to have won both of these awards and they are very supportive of each other when they represent the school.

"Thanks go to all the parents who are so supportive of all our sporting activities."

Choose favourite Launch Pad idea

IT'S week three of voting for the Launch Pad contenders, with three more hopefuls pitching for your support.

Launch Pad is an innovative competition giving budding entrepreneurs the chance to turn their business dreams into reality.

It is the brainchild of local businessman Robert Ellice who, having grown up and worked in the area, wanted to provide a platform for local people to showcase their business ideas and have the opportunity to develop and turn them into reality.

The project was brought to life by Bryan Hunt, of property firm Clarke Hillyer, and supported by the Star.

Earlier this year potential entrepreneurs were encouraged to submit their ideas for consideration by a panel of local business experts.

Following a phenomenal response, the judging panel has now whittled the original entrants down to a shortlist of 20 who will face a public vote that will help to determine the eventual winner.

"The response to Launch Pad has been fantastic," said Bryan. "People from various backgrounds and situations have come forward with some quite brilliant ideas for a new business in Harlow."

"Now we are inviting Star readers to vote for their favourite entries each week."

All you have to do to take part is log on to the Launch Pad website at www.launchpad-harlow.org and watch the contenders' video presentations before you cast your vote. It's as simple as that!

The idea with the most public votes each week will win a place in the grand final, where the expert panel will decide upon a worthy winner.

I am very grateful to everyone who voted

The winner of the first round of voting was Debby Boulter with her proposal for an indoor urban sports facility.

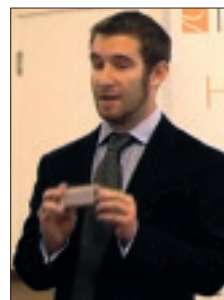

She said: "I had a really positive week due to the all the response I received in support of my idea. I have actually felt like an X Factor contestant campaigning for my votes!"

"The response has been really encouraging. I have been contacted by a number of young people not only supporting the indoor urban sports idea but asking if they can be a part of it. The fact that they are all so eager to help is a really positive thing. "I have also received emails from the skate shop in Harlow and Groove BMX giving their support and wanting to be kept updated with its progress as they think it's just what Harlow needs to put us on the map. Our MP, Robert Halfon, also sent an email with his support which again is just amazing."

"A young man who was involved with the building of the Vert Ramp at the Corby skatepark has also contacted me through my son's Facebook saying that he would like to be involved and is going to ask the company that he works for to contact me."

"I can not tell you how delighted I am with getting into the final, I am just so grateful to everyone who voted. I have been following on Twitter all week and it's been a real joy. Thank you once again and fingers crossed for the final!"

Use The Sun

Everyday bags that capture the power (electricity) of the sun and store it in batteries that can charge up your mobile phone etc at any time.

We have bought a few different designs including waist bags, handbags and rucksacks. Solar panel sizes range from .7w to 2.7w and battery sizes from 1,000mAh to 5,200mAh.

Whenever the panel sees sunlight it starts charging up the battery. The battery can be disconnected from the bag at any time and then used to power up a mobile or other device.

Our power-packed backpacks and handbags mean you will never be without a charge again. You don't have to remember to charge your phone or batteries because they will charge automatically every day. Just carry your bag and you will have that extra boost of power when you need it!

When sitting in a wheelchair it is totally impossible to safely and comfortably balance a shopping basket on your lap and propel yourself along and add shopping to your basket.

This device allows the user to safely secure the basket on their lap whilst leaving both hands free for shopping and moving the chair.

I have a working prototype model that has been fully tested by myself. I have photographs of the basket in use.

I am a long-term disabled wheelchair user who recognises the problems of independent shopping using regular store supplied shopping baskets and the problems associated with transporting that shopping back to my vehicle.

I work very closely with primary schools in the Harlow area, coaching and teaching around 300 children a week. My idea is to set up a venue to provide sporting activities to children and young adults.

In Harlow there is a large number of unhealthy young people and a large number of children hanging in street corner. My idea is to decrease this number by offering sporting opportunities to these young people. Children and young adults do not know what it is they would like to achieve in life so my idea is to provide top quality coaching which my lead to some young people taking a huge interest in a certain sport.

My idea is also open people who would like to meet new people, socialise or generally live a fit and healthy lifestyle.

My business idea is a new way of enjoying delicious cupcakes. The cupcake is the new fashion accessory for the young and old in the world of food.

I have been making cupcakes for about a year now and make them for family and friends on special occasions.

These cupcakes are a basic cupcake base with different toppings and designs. They are different to traditional special occasion cakes that when displayed on a cupcake stand look fantastic.

My idea is for a shop that sells nothing but cupcakes. I would also offer a delivery service which cakes can be sold to businesses factories and stores when work colleagues want a treat for a birthday, retirement, leaving or any other similar event.

Halfon

in the Hotseat

Harlow MP Robert Halfon answers questions on the issues - both local and national - that matter to Star readers. We will select the best questions submitted by you and put them to Mr Halfon, who will then give his opinion in this fortnightly column. "I want to get as much feedback from Harlow residents as possible and the Star is the ideal forum in which to discuss readers' questions on key issues," he said.

STANLEY CONYARD As you are aware there are thousands of people in every county taken out of regular employment each day to attend jury service. This must cost the country millions of pounds each year and is a huge drain on the economy. Could these people be replaced by the masses of unemployed who are claiming Unemployment Allowance and other benefits?

ROBERT HALFON: Thank you Stanley for what is an original suggestion.

As I understand it, you are right that the way that jury service works is that anyone can be picked, whether you are in work or not.

However, I believe that jury service is an important civic duty and helps to put ordinary people at the heart of our justice system, especially for the most serious criminal cases.

On balance, therefore, I would prefer that this system which has stood the test of time remains. However, I agree with the main point of your question, which is about ensuring that people who are out of work have an opportunity to contribute to society.

This is why I welcome the Government's plans to help people without work engage in community and social action.

For example, we will train a new generation of community organisers, especially in the most deprived areas. We will also use funds from dormant bank accounts to establish a Big Society Bank, which will provide new finance for local neighbourhood groups, charities, and social enterprises - especially those that help to create jobs and support people back into work.

Finally, there are also measures being introduced to support charities, like

Tomorrow's People and local companies like Seetec (www.seetec.co.uk/home/where_to_find_us-1/harlow.aspx) to help those without work with mentoring and support.

I hope that Harlow will be at the forefront of this, as we stand to benefit from the changes.

For example, only a few months ago the Charities Minister, Nick Hurd, visited the town with me to see some of the fantastic charities we have here, such as Streets2Homes, Rainbow Services, the Youth Cafe, and the Michael Roberts' Charitable Trust, which runs the Harlow Foodbank.

Cast gear up for Playhouse panto

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

CHRISTMAS is only a month away and that can mean only one thing for Harlow theatregoers - it's almost time to take a magic carpet ride to the Far East at the Playhouse's fun-packed family pantomime Aladdin. Rehearsals for the main cast got under way this week, while the talented youngsters who successfully made it through open auditions have been busy working throughout November on the show's dazzling dance routines.

The panto stars Aaron Sidwell - known to TV viewers as EastEnders' Steven Beale in the popular soap - as the cheeky boy-thief who steals the heart of the beautiful Princess Jasmine, played by Waterloo Road and Byker Grove star Holly Matthews. Chris Stanton, star of CBBC hit drama M.I. High, plays baddie Abanazar, while the show also marks the return of last year's ugly sister Paul Leno as Widow Twankey and Jimmy Burton as the Genie.

"Rehearsals are going really well; it's such a great cast to be working with," said Aaron. "It's going to be great fun with something for all the family."

Chris added: "I first performed at the Playhouse as a youngster some years ago and I've been raring to get back to Harlow." The show is being directed by Andrew Lynford, who played

Simon Raymond - brother of Tiffany - in EastEnders.

Aladdin will be the third production the Playhouse and New World Productions have worked together on since last year's record-breaking panto Cinderella and Easter' sold-out production of the Wizard of Oz.

"We've created a higher number of pre-Christmas performances this year, in response to last year's demand," said Playhouse general manager Scott Ramsay.

● Aladdin opens at Harlow Playhouse on Friday, December 3 and runs until January 3. Tickets are available from the box office on (01279) 431945 or online at www.playhouseharlow.com priced from £12-£17.50.

Gallery exhibits works of art inspired by Olympics

OLYMPIC hopefuls from across Essex have provided the inspiration for a dazzling new exhibition of artwork unveiled at Harlow's Gibberd Gallery on Friday.

Local artists teamed up with athletes hoping to represent Great Britain at the London 2012 Olympics and Paralympics to produce a series of fascinating portraits for the exhibition entitled Journey To The Podium.

Among those who took part in the project in their role as Team Essex Ambassadors were Beijing Olympians Alex O'Connell and Sarah Claxton and 2010 Commonwealth medal winners James Huckle, Alex Dowsett and Chloe Rogers.

Jeremy Lucas, Essex County Council cabinet member for heritage, culture and the arts said: "The Journey To The Podium project is a fantastic collaboration bringing sport and the arts together."

"It marks our local athletes' journey to the 2012 Games whilst creating a cultural legacy of the London Olympic and Paralympic Games for the people of Essex to enjoy."

>>music Once labelled as Britain's answer to Bessie Smith, Essex chanteuse Stella Goodey makes her debut appearance at St John's ARC tonight (Thursday). Miss Goodey will perform a repertoire ranging from gospel and blues to the Great American Songbook, featuring evergreen classics made famous by Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald and others. The performance starts at 8pm and tickets cost £10 on the door.

>>music Acclaimed tribute show Rockin' On Heaven's Door will send shivers down the spine of Playhouse audiences tonight (Thursday) and tomorrow (Friday) with portrayals of late musical greats including Elvis Presley, Rob Orbison and Buddy Holly. Backed by a superb five piece band, the show promises to deliver a feelgood factor from start to finish. Performances begin at 8pm and tickets cost £18 (£16.50 concessions).

>>music A second season of popular lunchtime concerts at St John's ARC in Old Harlow comes to a close tomorrow (Friday) with a piano recital of Beethoven and Brahms sonatas by Neil Crossland. The performance begins at 12.45pm and lunch and a drink are included in the admission price of £4.

>>art A dazzling new exhibition of watercolours and prints by local artists Jennifer and Alan Peel opens at St John's ARC in Old Harlow tomorrow (Friday). The works will be on display until Sunday, December 5 and admission is free.

>>music Harlow Symphony Orchestra returns to St John's ARC in Old Harlow on Sunday for the group's autumn concert. Featuring Beethoven's Symphony No 3 and works by Saint-Saëns and Mendelssohn, the orchestra will be led by Rowan Bell and conducted by Andrew Bruce. The performance begins at 7.30pm and tickets cost £10 (£8 concessions) from (01279) 838598.

Going loco with Denzel in high octane thriller

new this week

UNSTOPPABLE certificate 12A 1h38m

FOR more than 20 years, British director Tony Scott has unapologetically catered for the tastes of audiences who hunger for slam-bang thrills.

And he's certainly delivered with high-octane releases including Days Of Thunder, The Last Boy Scout and Enemy Of The State.

During that time, Scott has collaborated four times with Oscar-winning actor Denzel Washington and the pair are reunited for Unstoppable, a cinematic rush of blood to the head inspired by true events. It follows the exploits of two men as they try to stop a runaway locomotive before it derails, potentially killing thousands of innocent civilians. From the moment the train chugs away from its hapless driver, the film steadily gathers momentum, careering through the set pieces which invariably involve something being smashed to smithereens.

In a Pennsylvania rail yard, Dewey (Ethan Suplee) foolishly jumps off a slow-moving freight train in order to race ahead and change a set of points. Unfortunately, the throttle jars forward and the carriages speed down the line without a driver or any air brakes.

More worrying, the locomotive includes drums of a highly flammable liquids so yardmaster Connie Hooper (Rosario Dawson) clears the entire line to prevent a head-on collision while her boss Michael Galvin (Kevin Dunn) concocts a plan of action to minimise the loss of life.

Further down the line, veteran engineer Frank Barnes (Washington) and conductor Will Colson (Chris Pine) learn of the impending disaster. With little thought to their own safety, the two men orchestrate a daring rescue plan to slow down the runaway train before it reaches the notorious Stanton curve, where it will inevitably derail.

Unstoppable is a breathlessly orchestrated thrill ride that spends the minimum amount of time fleshing out Frank and Will as flawed fathers before contriving a nightmarish scenario for both men to redeem themselves in the eyes of their children.

Washington and Pine are an appealing double act and Dawson is suitably feisty, mocking Dewey for complaining that the train got away from him with the put-down: "It's a train, not a chipmunk."

The clatter of locomotives over tracks provides composer Harry Gregson-Williams with a natural tempo for his bombastic orchestrations.

All aboard for brainless fun.

LONDON BOULEVARD certificate 18 1h43m

BASED on the novel by Ken Bruen, London Boulevard is a romantic thriller about a film star who falls in love with the man assigned to protect her.

Big screen starlet Charlotte (Keira Knightley) wants to get away from the paparazzi so she rents a mansion in Holland Park and then hires south London ruffian Mitchell (Colin Farrell) as her bodyguard.

Mitchell has recently been released from prison and makes the perfect protector from a local crime boss (Ray Winstone).

As Charlotte spends time with Mitchell and glimpses the sweet, gentle man behind the tough exterior, she realises that she is developing feelings for him.

>>HARRY POTTER AND THE DEATHLY HALLOWS: PART 1

Harry (Daniel Radcliffe), Ron (Rupert Grint) and Hermione (Emma Watson) face the renewed threat from Voldemort (Ralph Fiennes) and the Death Eaters. The nefarious Lord Voldemort and his followers continue to grow in power, threatening everything that Dumbledore (Michael Gambon) and his followers hold dear. With Hogwarts in disarray, Harry, Ron and Hermione embark on a perilous quest to track down the mysterious Horcruxes and stop the forces of darkness from taking a stranglehold over the wizarding world.

>>DUE DATE Father-to-be Peter (Robert Downey Jr.) is hurrying to catch a flight home so that he can be by his wife's side when she gives birth, but his best intentions go awry when he encounters an eccentric aspiring actor named Ethan (Zach Galifianakis). After missing the flight, highly-strung Peter is forced to catch a ride with exasperating Ethan and his small dog. But Peter and Ethan don't make the best travelling companions, and with only five days to get home, will Peter make it?

>>DESPICABLE ME Criminal mastermind Gru (voiced by Steve Carell) seethes with envy after new villain on the block Vector (Jason Segel) steals one of the ancient pyramids and replaces it with an inflatable. With his reputation on the line, Gru plots to steal the moon using a shrink ray gun from Vector's laboratory. However, the lair is heavily fortified so Gru adopts three orphaned girls, Margo (Miranda Cosgrove), Edith (Dana Gaier) and Agnes (Elsie Fisher) and cleverly uses the children to breach the defences. By the time Gru has stolen the shrink ray he has forged a bond with the girls and he must contemplate giving up his life of crime to become a father or send them back to the orphanage.

>>MEGAMIND (3D &2D)

Megamind is the most brilliant supervillain the world has ever known – and the least successful. Over the years he has tried to conquer Metro City in every imaginable way but each attempt is a colossal failure thanks to the caped superhero known as Metro Man. But when the day arrives when Megamind finally defeats him, the fate of Metro City is threatened by the arrival of a new villain and chaos runs rampant. Can the world's biggest "mind" actually be the one to save the day?

>>CATS & DOGS: THE REVENGE OF KITTY GALORE

In the age-old battle between cats and dogs, one crazed feline has taken things a paw too far. Kitty Galore (voiced by Bette Midler), formerly an agent for cat spy organisation MEOWS, has gone rogue and hatched a diabolical plan that will not only bring her canine enemies to heel, but will also take down her former kitty comrades and make the world her scratching post. Faced with this unprecedented threat, cats and dogs are forced to join forces for the first time in history in an unlikely alliance to save themselves.

>>TOY STORY 3 (2D) Woody and Buzz had always accepted that their owner Andy would grow up some day, but what happens when that day arrives? In the third film in the series, Andy is preparing to depart for college, leaving his loyal toys troubled about their uncertain future.

Five-bed home with pool and cinema

coverproperty

Location Great Dunmow

Category Five-bedroom home close to town centre

Additional Entertainment complex with indoor swimming pool, games room and home cinema

Price £1,295,000

Agent Wright and Co, The Old Post Office, 4-6 Church Street, Sawbridgeworth, CM21 9AB. Tel: (01279) 600400

IF you're looking for a large family home with a host of fabulous modern features, then Porthkerry is the house for you.

Located near Great Dunmow town centre, this five bedroom, four bathroom property would be perfect for entertaining as well as relaxing at home with the family.

An entertainment complex including indoor swimming pool, games room and cinema will ensure your leisure time is taken care of without having to leave the house.

The games room has its own built-in bar and panelled walls incorporating an electronically operated recessed 50-inch plasma TV. The cinema is sound-proofed with an 8'4 x 5'4 screen and projector, with five suede, electronically operated seats, computer controls and air conditioning. This takes staying in to watch a film to a whole new level.

The property is also fully wired with a remote home control system

Off the main hall and hallway there are six reception rooms. The stunning hand-made kitchen has a door leading off to a separate utility room. A bespoke Westbury conservatory has French doors leading to the rear patio, natural stone flooring and gothic arch windows to three aspects.

Outside, the 100ft long garden is mainly laid to lawn. At the back of the house there is a large paved patio perfect for outside entertaining, with outside lighting and a brick retaining wall. This area leads to the side of the property where there is a walled side garden which is also laid mainly to lawn with shrub and herbaceous borders.

Porthkerry is within walking distance of all of Great Dunmow's facilities and there is also easy access onto the A120 and onwards to the M11 and M25.

This week's cover property really has to be seen to be appreciated. Wright and Co have all the details on (01279) 600400.

Yours for £700,000

WITH its cinema/games room, swimming pool, hot tub, fenced paddock and large gardens, Montana in Parsloe Road, Harlow, has plenty to entertain everyone.

There are four/five bedrooms in this light and spacious family home, as well as two bathrooms and a shower room.

Outside there is a carport as well as plenty of parking space. There are also various sheds and a summerhouse.

Epping is easy to get to and this property is offered chain-free with planning in place to enlarge further.

For further details contact Howick & Brooker Partnership on (01279) 418888.

Available for around £229,995

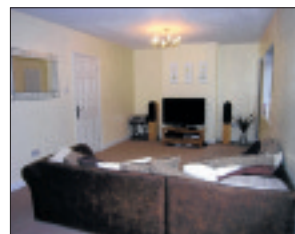

THIS three bedroom semi-detached property in Old House Croft is just a short walk from Harlow Town Park and close to the town centre.

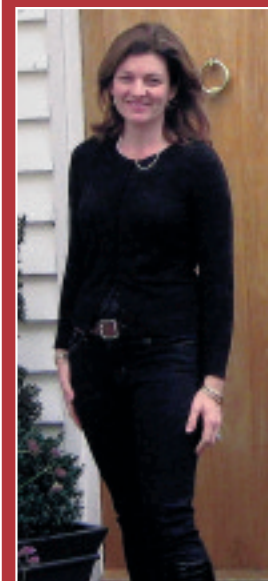

With off-street parking and a large garden, these properties rarely become available in this area.

The open plan kitchen has an integral oven and hob, fridge, freezer and dishwasher. There is also a breakfast bar in the centre.

Outside, the garden is about 100ft long and is part patio, part decking. Towards the front of the garden there is a pond, then a large area of lawn before reaching another decking area at the rear.

To arrange a viewing, contact Geoffrey Matthew Estates on (01279) 444988.

Tracey Waples
Property Editor

Welcome to your new look Homes Now, the area's number one property guide.

On the market for £950,000

THATCHED and weather boarded with a picket fenced border, Lavender Cottage is a picture postcard home set in the heart of Matching Green.

Offering a great balance of character and modern elegance, this is a rare property and an enchanting place to live.

The solid wooden beams and vaulted ceilings continue the impression you will have had from the outside. Four bedrooms, two en suite bathrooms and panoramic views make it irresistible.

At the front there is a detached garage and a shingle driveway with space for six vehicles.

Contact Intercounty's Sawbridgeworth office on (01279) 600333 for further details.

Offers in the region of £210,000

THIS red brick, semi-detached house in Sewell Harris Close, Harlow, has three bedrooms in a cul-de-sac location.

The good sized kitchen/diner has a range of wall and base units and laminated wood floor and there is a double glazed window looking out to the front.

The lounge has real wood flooring and a double glazed window onto the back garden.

The conservatory, with a pretty tiled floor, opens out onto the rear garden which is laid mostly to patio. There are two sheds with power and lighting, one also has internet access.

For further information contact Kings Group on (01279) 433033.

Old Harlow Business Centre

Tel: 01279 444312 web: www.equitiaoffice.com

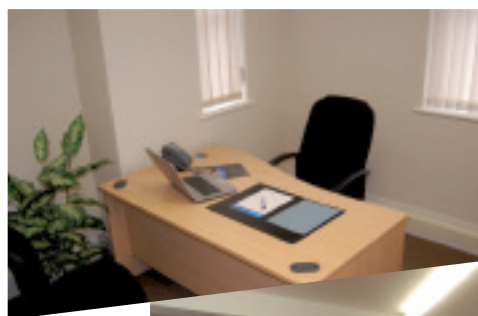

Our Business Centre offers a full virtual office facility to businesses requiring the image of an office address or a second address for correspondence without the usual expensive office running costs. Equitia also supports such businesses by having our experienced receptionists answer their calls Monday to Saturday. This enhances the apparent size of the business and makes sure important enquiries are not missed.

Old Harlow Business Centre is part of the Equitia Group. Within our group is Centurion, a very well established and successful estate agent dealing with property sales and lettings for Harlow and the surrounding areas. We also have our debt management company, Equitiadebt assisting individuals and companies struggling with their finances all over the UK.

Lotus blossoms with new Evora

By Matt Joy

It almost seems like a cliché to say so but Lotus is really on the up.

Taking a motorshow by the scruff of the neck and putting everyone else in the shade is a hard task for the big boys, so for the modestly-sized firm from Norfolk to steal the limelight at Paris in September was something else.

The five new models on show proved that, with the future of the company on a sure footing, the brilliant engineering brains can get on with what they do best.

The Evora has already won plaudits as well as the all-important hearts and minds of the enthusiasts, with the sharp chassis and slick exterior proving that Lotus can do more than develop Elise spin-offs. But constant development is the key to success which is why there's now an Evora with an important extra letter at the end.

'S' in this instance stands for supercharged, not that the regular Evora is short on power. The naturally-aspirated 3.5-litre V6 punches out 276bhp and a large chunk of torque, but such is the brilliance of the chassis that it can handle significantly more. The addition of a latest-generation twin scroll supercharger brings the corral up to 345bhp while the torque takes a big jump, too – from 2,000rpm the Evora S produces as much torque as the standard version does at its peak.

With a lithe kerbweight of 1437kg, the Evora S can blast beyond 170mph and scorch from 0-62mph in under five seconds. A fast car has become a very fast one.

You won't be able to spot the difference from the outside, though. Not unless its wearing the stunning new 19/20-inch alloy wheel option complete with bespoke specification Pirelli tyres.

The Evora remains a very attractive car: still clearly a 2+2 with occasional rear seats, but the mix of modern, clean lines and the occasional nod to Lotus heritage results in a car that has a distinct knack of turning heads.

Worldwide sales so far of 1,300 units is in line with Lotus targets but this is still a relatively rare car, not something that can necessarily said about its rivals.

Getting in requires a little forethought – this is a very low car after all – but once inside the Evora's cockpit is simple and designed to offer a proper driving environment. The instruments are smart and important buttons are housed in slick metal-finished pods either side of the binnacle.

With the small wheel close to you and the chunky gear lever sprouting up close to hand, there's no doubt that it's ready for action.

Fire it up and there's a little more mechanical action going on behind your head, although you are only faintly aware of it. This has not become a noisy car despite the addition of the supercharger. However, Lotus has spent time getting the most in terms of aural pleasure from the V6 and the optional sports exhaust system really adds to the character.

Pull away and the extra torque is immediate, right from tickover a modest squeeze of the accelerator will elicit significant forward progress.

The other talent that makes itself known within the first half mile is how superbly the Evora rides. The 'S' has detail suspension changes and is fractionally stiffer than the standard car, and even on the biggest wheel option it deals with very poor road surfaces remarkably well. This is a sports car first, of course, so it doesn't hide the surface from you, but you are aware of what's going on without being bothered by it.

That is some trick to pull off when you start to drive the Evora hard. This is a proper Lotus; it has the grip, balance and delicacy that you wish every car could have and every bend becomes a chance to savour its remarkable talents.

It has the ability to change direction rapidly as a car of that configuration should, but even when pushing it to the limit around a circuit there's no suggestion of it growing fangs and biting back.

The Evora S isn't short of competition at this level – this is most definitely Porsche territory – but no excuses are required. This is a Lotus that can take on the best in the class and turn buyers' heads.

Don't buy another sports car before you've driven one.

Scrap

End of the road
for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).
A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer
your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Bulls break Hawks for second win in fortnight

Bedford Bulls 78, Harlow 68

Herts Basketball League, division one

BEDFORD Bulls are fast proving Harlow Hawks' nemesis.

Less than a fortnight after their National Founders Cup defeat at Bedford, the Hawks suffered another loss at the hands of their foes.

Bedford started the game with a very quick tempo, but Hawks matched them for effort, getting a number of steals on the defensive end early on.

Nick Moss scored six consecutive points and was backed up by the inside play of Simon Atkinson, who also added six points in the first period.

Bedford took the first quarter 19-15.

The second quarter saw Bulls start the quicker of the two teams and increased their lead to eight points before Ayo Oyerinde stole the ball and raced away for an easy lay-up.

On the very next play he showed intelligent movement off the ball, which allowed him another easy score.

The Hawks' small squad was starting to show signs of tiredness due to the fast tempo the Bulls were playing.

This caused the Hawks' defensive effort to drop as Bulls started to find their range.

But Harlow finished the half the stronger with a three-pointer from Dave Spashett cutting the deficit to four points heading into the half-time break (35-31).

The visitors produced their best offensive play of the game in the third period, with good ball movement.

The Atkinson brothers, Luke and Simon, produced their best work by either converting for a score or drawing fouls.

This then created some room on the outside for sharp-shooting player-coach Shab Niaz to take full advantage and hit a pair of three pointers.

Unfortunately the Hawks continued to struggle to tame the Bulls defensively and the hosts matched them basket for basket.

Heading into the final quarter, Bulls led 59-53.

The final period saw the Bulls increase their lead to 12 points and Hawks never really recovered.

They struggled again with offensive fluency, but never gave up their defensive effort with S. Atkinson blocking shot after shot.

A late flurry from Niaz gave the Hawks a glimmer of hope, but time ran out on as the Bulls stampeded to a 78-68 victory.

Coach Niaz said: "We were always in the contest. Our free throw shooting has been poor of late, which can sometimes be the difference in close games - we need to make the freebies count."

HARLOW HAWKS: S. Niaz (19pts), S. Atkinson (13pts), L. Atkinson (13pts), Moss (8pts), Spashett (6pts), Oyerinde (5pts), Allan (4pts), Burgess.

Loss to title-chasers leaves Rams on bottom

THE Rams prop up the table and face a bleak winter after losing eight of their first nine league games.

Harlow fielded a weakened side for their toughest league match so far this season at second-placed Braintree - and paid the price as they crashed to a heavy defeat on Saturday.

Basement side Beccles drew 16-16 against Canvey Island and leap-frogged Harlow to go second from bottom.

There was no lack of effort from Harlow, but the visitors had no answer to Braintree's pace and strategy in attack. Harlow exerted early pressure without scoring and the hosts went ahead when Craig Willis kicked a 7th-minute penalty.

Braintree 46, Harlow 0

RFU London & SE, division two north east

On the quarter-hour mark, Braintree increased their lead when the Rams defence was drawn in and the ball was passed wide for Joe Young to score an unconverted try.

Five minutes later, Braintree scored their second try under the posts through Jamie Prince. Willis kicked the conversion to put Braintree 15-0 ahead.

The visitors scored two more unconverted tries on 30 and 35 minutes.

A good line-out move saw Steve Sewell touch down before Young bagged his second try for a 25-0 lead at half-time.

The visitors defended bravely in the second half but the Braintree juggernaut continued and they scored three tries on 46, 55 and 68 minutes, all of which were converted by Willis.

John Smillie crashed over for the first try, before Sewell spotted a gap to touch down.

Joss Adams dashed over to score Braintree's last try.

Harlow fought very hard in the closing 15 minutes, keeping play for most of the time inside the Braintree 22 and came very close to scoring on three occasions.

HARLOW: Mackie, Webb, Verner, Bates, Alderman, Dobson, Woodington, Lane, Lewis, Prindiville, Trearmer, Palmer, Roberts, Romaine, Barr. Subs: Cunningham, Mallia, Jenner.

Great Korea move for GB judo ace Faith

FAITH Pitman insists it is high time she started thinking about results with the British judokas for the London 2012 Olympics set to be selected within the next 12 months.

The 25-year-old, above, from Hookfield in Harlow, has endured a tumultuous past two years having had to almost completely change her technique in line with rule changes introduced after the 2008 Olympics.

This had led to inconsistency, with Pitman finishing seventh at April's European Championships but failing to progress past the second round at September's World Champs.

Pitman is currently preparing for a trip to Suwon in South Korea for a World Cup event and after admitting to finally finding her feet, insists now is the time to start delivering.

"It took me a long time to get where I am now because there were rule changes in the sport and I had to regroup but I am starting to reap the rewards," said Pitman.

"The next 12 months are massively important because I think by the end of next year hopefully I will be in a position to be selected for the Olympic Games.

"Obviously it will be unofficially because they won't name the teams until 2012 but it's a massive year and whoever gets selected will ultimately be whoever has had the best results. Whichever competition you go to there is going to be pressure on you to get good results but you have to be confident they are going to come as well.

"The higher up the rankings you are the better, but you have to be consistent because the most consistent person will get selected.

"It's all results based and it will be very difficult but you can't go into an Olympics not looking like you are going to win a medal."

Pitman - who is ranked 37th in the world in the under 63kg category - will travel to South Korea next month with a view to staying in the Far East for the prestigious Tokyo Grand Slam. Only those who medal in Suwon will be considered for a further flight to Japan and Pitman admits that the winning mentality is one she must adopt from now on.

"I am hoping to do well in Korea and if I could pick up a medal that would be fantastic. Things are going quite well at the moment and I have concentrated my training on getting things to come together."

Trio sign while key man stays

Skipper upbeat as Khawaja U-turn offers hope for cricket season

Cricket

A MASSIVE boost has been handed to new Harlow Cricket Club skipper Luke Heskett after key all-rounder Ahmed Khawaja opted to stay at the Marigolds club.

Khawaja was set to leave the Shepherd Neame Essex League side, along with skipper Jason McNally and wicket-keeper James Butler, who have joined Ware and Billericay respectively.

Brothers Ryan and Lee Jessey have also joined McNally at Ware, prompting fears that Harlow could struggle to maintain their division two status.

However, the tide has shifted for Heskett. He has also signed all-rounder Haris Afridi who has played for Wanstead, Loughton and Gidea Park & Romford.

Heskett has also brought in leg-spinner Matthew Nobes, a fellow Loughborough University player. He joins Mike Boyes, the former head of cricket development at Essex University, who has come in as first team coach.

These are excellent additions, but Khawaja is the ace in the pack.

He scored a phenomenal 1,209 runs at an average of 93 in division two last season, capturing many vital wickets with his spinners as Harlow missed out on promotion by the narrowest of margins.

Heskett said: "I renewed the interest [of Khawaja] after taking over the captaincy. I have been speaking to him for a little while.

"He's a high-quality player and I'm really pleased to have him back."

The Harlow skipper was also delighted with his other new signings.

"Haris bats in the top order and can bowl fast. He brings balance to the side and does what Jason [McNally] does. He will also help with the coaching of youngsters," explained Heskett.

"Matthew is a good leg-spinner and gives it good air and can bowl googlies [off-spinners with a leg-spinner's action]."

A dedicated first team coach is not always the norm at this level of cricket.

Boyes, who is the stepfather of Harlow first team bowler and former Essex cricketer Andrew McGarry, should provide Heskett with valuable back-up.

Heskett said: "He's experienced and will help with the warm-ups [before a game] and will help at training. It's good for me to have an experienced eye in the side."

He added: "Andrew McGarry is fully committed and with the likes of Rehman Ahmed and Luke Monger I think we can be up there challenging."

Club chairman Andrew Jessey added: "We also have a lot of good young players coming through who will be looking to get in the seconds and press on. These include the likes of Jeffrey Wilshire (wicket-keeper/batsman) and Anthony Webb (batsman)."

Home club gets grip on tournament

Judo

MORE than 200 judo players from across the region descended on leisurezone for the Herts & Essex Invitational Championships.

Harlow Judo Club hosted the prestigious event.

Harlow topped the medal table with six golds, eight silvers and four bronze medals.

Gold medal winners from Harlow were: Elle Ward, Brandon Sell, Eric Suvitra, Martin Suvitra, Patrick Roberts and Adam Bell.

Silver medallists were:

Fightback in vain as Colchester grab winner

A LACKLUSTRE display saw Harlow fall to Colchester on Saturday in a crucial Essex premier division match.

Despite having key players missing Harlow were hopeful of getting a result from this match.

But Colchester dominated possession and took the lead on 13 minutes. The visitors made their pressure pay when Minal Patel fired in from close range past Harlow keeper Linda Rowley.

The hosts responded with captain Emma Tweddle rifling a shot just wide from a penalty corner.

Colchester continued to put the home side

Essex Women's Hockey League, premier division

under pressure and only excellent play by defenders Jo Chambers and Alex Figg stopped them stretching their lead as they went into the half-time break.

Harlow fought back in the second period as Charlotte Byers and Gill Phipps both had chances before Tweddle equalised on 42 minutes with a fine shot from the edge of the circle, deceiving the unsighted visiting keeper.

Harlow's joy however was short-lived as Colchester regained the advantage four minutes later. A cross from the right was pounced on at the far post by a Colchester forward.

Chambers and Figg orchestrated more Harlow pressure and Sue Douglas netted a rare goal after 55 minutes to level the score again. She continued her run into the circle from midfield, and was on hand to push the ball home following Tweddle's initial shot.

But the hosts were unable to hold on and with five minutes remaining Colchester made it 3-2. A swift move down the right was converted to take all three points.

HARLOW LADIES: Rowley, Shearman, Figg, Chambers, Douglas, Tweddle, Esterhuysen, Ferdinando, Byers, Amos, Phipps.

Other result: East Men's Hockey League div four south east - Romford 2, Harlow 1.

New home pays off for gymnasts

Gymnastics

MOVING to a permanent site has certainly enabled the Harlow Gymnastics Club to thrive.

The club moved into its new home at Sumners Leisure Centre just over a year ago.

And the hard work members have put in over the last year has really paid off as the club excelled at last month's Essex County Championships.

In October alone, the club had 38 gymnasts competing in regional heats and county competitions.

Members gained a total of three gold medals, seven silver medals and five bronze medals.

Out of the girls, Elisha Jesse, gained a silver medal in the Essex Championships and gold in the Eastern Region heats.

Robyn Power secured bronze in both the county final and regional heat.

Naomi Harryman gained a regional heat bronze medal on bars.

Mercedez Irving struck gold on bars in the regional heat.

Amy Edwards achieved a regional heat silver on beam.

Finally Amber O'Neill was 5th in the regional finals.

Out of the boys, Oliver German claimed a regional heat silver medal and qualified for the regional finals, taking a further four silver medals on the apparatus.

Archie Dimmock qualified in 4th for the regional finals and also won gold on the bars and bronze on floor and vault.

The regional finals will take place on Saturday at Ipswich Gymnastics Club.

A club spokesman said: "The club opened in October 2009. We have doubled our membership and continue to get children of Harlow and surrounding areas into a fun and active sport."

"With our high level of coaches and years of experience, the club is now pushing its way up the leader table in the Eastern region, with future plans to progress forwards to national competitions."

Great Parndon Community Association for its success.

"The GPCA has backed Harlow Gymnastics right from the beginning. When we were struggling to find permanent premises for the club, it made everything possible after many knock backs on other venues within Harlow."

"GPCA continue supporting the club. We all work together to protect and safeguard the children of Harlow along with promoting healthy living, fun activities and a safe environment for the youth of Harlow to enjoy and take part in."

However, the club owes a huge debt of gratitude to the Gold medal and club record for mighty Murtagh

Running

STEVE Murtagh won the veteran 45 title at the Southern Counties Championships.

The Harlow Running Club member competed in the Epsom 10 mile road race, which incorporated the Southern Champs.

He produced a fantastic run for 5th place overall in what was a personal best (PB) time for the distance of 57 minutes and 43 seconds.

Along with a gold medal for winning his age group, he also celebrated breaking a HRC Vet 45 record which had stood since 1997.

Harlow Running Club competed in the second round of the East Herts and West Essex Cross Country League held over a muddy 5-mile course at Bishop's Stortford last Sunday.

With a less than full strength side, the Harlow men's team could only finish third out of four teams.

The Harlow women finished fourth.

Combined, Harlow were third. Saffron Striders finished first, Ware Joggers second and Bishop's Stortford fourth.

First Harlow runner to finish was Alan Broughton in a superb 4th place.

First Harlow lady was Paula Reynolds, also in a superb 4th place.

Angling

DIFFICULT conditions did not deter Stort Valley Angling Society youngster Ross Deadman when he won a meeting held on the Ferry Boat section of the Great Ouse.

Clear water and bright sunny conditions made the fishing hard for most.

However, Deadman still netted 18lbs, 6ozs to lift the trophy.

Bill Beehan claimed second spot with a mixed bag of 16lbs 2ozs and third place went to Roy Deadman (8lbs 3ozs).

A haul of some fine tench and bream near the A414 road bridge on the River Stort in Harlow helped Malcolm Gregg win the annual Stort Cup.

Gregg was victorious with a fine 16lbs 7ozs.

Mick Westby was runner-up, netting 13lbs 11ozs.

Bob Groom's 9lbs 7ozs gave him third.

Medal joy for starlet Rebecca

Tae Kwon Do

NINE Year-old Rebecca Howlett showed youth was no barrier as she won two medals at the South East Tae Kwon Do Championships at the K2 in Crawley, West Sussex.

The event is held as a warm-up competition for the British Championships later this month.

In the yellow belt peewee sparring division, Rebecca claimed a bronze medal in the individual sparring.

She bettered this in the team sparring which she and her colleagues claimed a silver medal.

Rebecca, a pupil at Jerounds School in Harlow, only started training at the Passmores School-based club six months ago.

challenge where Shave looked more culpable.

The game was held up when Hawks winger Louis Riddle suffered a serious injury when he was brought down by Blackburn.

Clark Akers replaced him in his first game since suffering an ankle ligament injury against Carshalton in the FA Trophy last month.

Harlow's improvement in the second half was not rewarded until Akers scored on 80 minutes.

A brilliant counter-attack from a Maldon corner culminated in the youngster cracking in an excellent left-footed 25-yard shot into the corner.

Harlow conceded again in the second minute of injury-time. Sweeney crossed from the right and Arnott fired in from seven yards.

Warren added: "Maldon are bang on form but I was not happy with the way we defended.

"After going 3-0 behind in the first half we were not going to come back but we did better in the second half."

Worryingly skipper Leo Roget played on despite suffering from a torn cartilage injury and could miss Saturday's home match against Waltham Abbey. Winger Steve Ferguson is also a doubt as he picked up a thigh injury against Maldon.

Defeat for boxer in English Champs

THERE was disappointment for Harlow ABC boxer Juris Varuskins as he lost 16-13 to Southern Counties challenger M. Zurel in the light welterweight quarter-finals of the English National ABA Novice Championships.

Varuskins, who lives in Collins Meadow, Harlow, had come back early from a family holiday in his native Latvia to compete at Hutton Community Centre in Brentwood on Saturday.

Varuskins, 21, had done extremely well in winning two fights to reach the last eight but lost a close verdict.

Harlow ABC coach Steve Andrew, who was in Varuskins' corner, said: "Juris found it hard to get going, as Zurel started the first round by throwing a lot of punches.

"I thought Juris lost the first round, but won the next two. The computer scoring had a difficult job."

He added: "It was a close-fought contest. A lot of credit goes to Varuskins. He has made us all very proud."

Harlow ABC trainer Jeff Hatton was also in Varuskins' corner.

"He was in agony and was on a drip for the pain. It's a massive shame. He would have been a big player for us this season."

He added: "Their player got the ball but he came in from the side and behind. He was not trying to cause Riddle an injury but it was dangerous.

"If the ref had punished a few tackles in the first half and early in the second half this may not have happened."

Pea-shooter

Maidstone mauled by Hawks' young striker

THE Hawks might have missed out on police officer-cum Cheshunt striker Chris Meikle, but there's been an arresting development at Barrows Farm that could work out for the best for the Ryman division one north club.

Having honed his goalscoring prowess at South Midlands League side Hertford Town, James Peagram returned to Harlow Town in emphatic style.

Following on from his hat-trick for the reserves last Wednesday, the young striker cut Ryman premier Maidstone to shreds on Saturday, scoring twice and setting up another as Harlow progressed to the first round proper of the FA Trophy.

He was joined by another returning former Harlow player. Young midfielder Tom Bruno has returned to Barrows Farm on a short-term loan from Blue Square Bet South side Braintree Town.

And Bruno added some much needed bite to a midfield which had lost three successive league games.

Peagram was a constant thorn in Maidstone's side and had a couple of early chances and was also denied a 36th-minute penalty when he was upended in the box after Danny Brown's delightful through ball.

Respite was brief for the Kent visitors as Peagram seized on a mistake by Colin Richmond on the left flank and stormed forward before smashing an 18-yard shot across goal and into the far corner on 40 minutes.

Just 58 seconds into the second half Harlow made it 2-0. Maidstone completely failed to deal with Steve Ferguson's long throw from the right, which bobbed along to Peagram and he nodded in at the far post.

It was 3-0 and game over on 53 minutes. Peagram's neat through ball looked to have found Che Stadhart in an offside position but this was not spotted and the striker nipped through before slotting into the bottom left corner.

An error from Maidstone stopper Andy Walker ended with an audacious chip from Steve Ferguson which struck the top of the left post and bounced clear on 70 minutes.

Maidstone were pretty awful but Hawks left-back Sacha Opinel did well to prevent a consolation in injury-time when he blocked sub Jake Hobbs' goal-bound shot as Harlow wrapped up their third win over a premier division side in this season's FA Trophy.

Hawks player-coach Christian Wheeler said: "We're really pleased. It was important to bounce back after three defeats.

"We sent Pegs [Peagram] to Hertford to get some games. We know the ability has always been there. He is scoring goals and he's got a good attitude. He took his goals really well and he's working hard."

HARLOW TN: Madden 6, Stevenson 7, Opinel 7, Roget 6 (Barnes 83), Stewart 7, Brown 8, Ferguson 8 (Bradbury 83), Bruno 9, Stadhart 7 (Modeste-Humphrey 68), PEAGRAM 9, Riddle 8. Att: 296.

Sweet sixteens' all-round skill stifles opponents

THE all-round skill of Harlow Rugby Club's U-16's shone though as they won 27-16 at Barking in division two of the Essex League.

Barking went ahead after 10 minutes on Sunday.

But the visitors bounced back when inside centre Jake Alger, side-stepped his marker and scored a try.

Matt Norris kicked the conversion and Harlow led 7-5 at half-time.

Youth rugby

After the break, Barking went 12-7 up through a converted try.

But Rams scored again when flanker Sonny Handscomb peeled off the back of a rolling maul to touch down.

Norris kicked the conversion.

Harlow's third try came from a five-metre scrum scored by Norris. The conversion was missed.

The hosts responded with a converted try to tie the game up at 19-19.

Good forward play from Harlow set up Norris who broke before he passed to Kurtis Knightly to score an unconverted try.

Norris kicked a late penalty to conclude the scoring.

HARLOW U-16: Judge, Bailey, Chamneoui, Randscomb, Lane, Riddell, Norris, Ramsey, Alger, Knightley, Brown, Davis, Roberts, Burroughes, Foley.

Maidenhead U-15, last year's Berkshire League champions, proved too strong for their Harlow counterparts and beat them 64-12 in a friendly at Ram Gorse.

Rhys Davies scored both of Harlow's tries.

Chay Clark kicked one conversion.

Kai Sharp scored a try for Harlow U-14s when they lost 24-5 at home to Bury St Edmunds in a friendly.

Hawks need win over ex-coach to end 'Blowvember'

THE Hawks will be aiming to put one over former coach Paul Wickenden when he brings his Waltham Abbey side to Barrows Farm this Saturday.

After a run of FOUR successive league defeats in November - or Blowvember as it might be called now - Harlow desperately need points on the board as they slip out of promotion contention.

Wickenden, pictured top right, the son of former Harlow Town favourite Ray Wickenden, took over as manager of the Abbots in the summer from ex-Harlow Town boss Glen Alzapiedi. His dad Ray is also a coach at Capershots.

Hawks player-coach Christian Wheeler said: "We need to get back on a run and see if we can get back to what we were doing. We need to grind some results out. It shows the league is a lot stronger this year."

"They [Waltham Abbey] will be up for it.

Paul Wickenden will have them up for it. We need to be strong and keep the work rate up. And we need to start keeping some clean sheets. That's why we went on the run [unbeaten in the league in October]."

Harlow Town will be missing both full-backs. Right-back Donny Barnard (knee ligaments) will be out for another 10 days while left-back Sacha Opinel serves a five-match suspension for red cards against Brentwood and Wingate & Finchley.

Wheeler has ruled out bringing in any new defenders as he says Bradley Barnes and Jon Stevenson can do excellent jobs at the back.

"Barnes can play there. He can do a job and on the right-hand side we have Stevo [Stevenson]. Technically there are not many better players at the club. There is enough quality in the squad."

However, Wheeler said the club could still bring in another offensive player. He said: "We are looking for someone with a bit of pace."

A plus for Harlow will be the early return of Clark Akers. The attacking midfielder was in great form before he suffered an ankle ligament injury against Carshalton in the FA Trophy last month.

He was expected to be out for longer but has made an excellent recovery and did well as a late sub against Maldon on Tuesday.

Striker Jamie Richards (work commitments) could miss out, but midfielder Leon Hunter (tonsillitis) might return.

Winger Louis Riddle (broken fibula and dislocated ankle) could be out until the spring, while skipper Leo Roget (knee) and Steve Ferguson (thigh) are doubtful.

The FA Trophy win secured a £4,000 windfall for Kevin Warren's men, who will host former FA Trophy winners Woking in the next round. The Blue Square Bet South side won 2-1 at Dover Athletic in their third qualifying round match.

Riddle injury KO as Town suffer fourth league loss

HAWKS boss Kevin Warren has said his team needs to get back on track after they slipped to their fourth successive defeat.

Maldon & Tiptree were far sharper in Tuesday night's game than Harlow Town, who now lie 10th.

Warren said: "We had high hopes of returning to winning ways [in the league]. We need to stop the rot against Waltham Abbey [this Saturday] and get something from this game."

"There is no point in turning up for FA Trophy games and not shaping up in the league. The league is the most important of all the competitions."

Maldon went ahead after five minutes. The skilful Joe Sweeney played a lovely ball across and behind the Harlow defence and Michael Deane fired in a left-footed shot across goal and into the far corner.

A key moment came and went for the visitors five minutes later when Tom Bruno released in-form striker James Peagram but he was unable to round home keeper Tony Tucker who grabbed the ball off his feet.

At the other end, Deane's curled effort hit the bar before the hosts doubled their lead on 21 minutes.

A long ball from ex-Hawks midfielder Paul Shave resulted in Harlow keeper Rhys Madden venturing out of his box to head the ball. It then fell loose and Blackburn tucked home from 25 yards.

On 29 minutes, Steve Ferguson's corner was met by Laurie Stewart's glancing header, which was cleared off the line.

Maldon went 3-0 up on 36 minutes. A brilliantly-weighted pass from Sweeney released Craig Arnott and his left-footed shot gave Madden no chance.

On 52 minutes, Danny Brown was unfortunate to be booked in a >>Cont'd on page 91

Fears jinxed ace could be out for season

A BROKEN fibula and dislocated ankle has left Hawks winger Louis Riddle facing the prospect of being out of action until the spring.

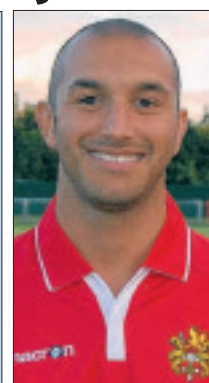

Riddle sustained the injury in a challenge with Maldon skipper Lee Blackburn in the 59th minute of Tuesday's clash.

He was taken by ambulance to hospital and is set to undergo an operation.

Riddle was left writhing in agony and play was stopped immediately. The game was then delayed by eight minutes before Riddle was stretchered off.

It was cruel luck for Riddle who had only just returned from a hamstring injury and had played well in Harlow's previous two games.

Hawks boss Kevin Warren said: "I feel for Louis. He had got himself >>Cont'd on page 91
